

Global Powerhouses and Innovation Catalysts Unite at Premier Supply Chain Event in Columbus

In a tariff-driven landscape, CHAINge is a vital platform for supply chain leaders to share strategies, spark innovation, and build resilient, future-ready operations.”

— Abe Eshkenazi, CEO at ASCM, CSCP, CPA, CAE

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES, April 9, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CHAINge North America, the premier supply chain event sponsored by the Association for Supply Chain Management (ASCM), will take place on September 9-10, 2025, in Columbus, Ohio. This groundbreaking transformative experience promises to go beyond the typical parameters of a conference, it's where supply chain industry leaders will come together to drive innovation, education and collaboration with the goal of developing forward-thinking solutions that redefine a stronger and more dynamic industry.

"The current tariff landscape underscores the urgent need for our industry to adapt and innovate," said ASCM CEO Abe Eshkenazi, CSCP, CPA, CAE. "CHAINge is specifically designed to meet this moment, offering a powerful platform for supply chain professionals to learn practical strategies for navigating this complex landscape, collaborate on effective solutions, and build more resilient and sustainable supply chains for the future. This isn't just a conference; it's where we equip ourselves to not only face today's challenges but to thrive in tomorrow's reality."
