

Fortune Media and Great Place To Work Name ASCM to 2025 Fortune Best Workplaces in Chicago List

CHICAGO -- [June 12, 2025] -- Great Place To Work® and Fortune magazine have honored the Association for Supply Chain Management (ASCM) as one of this year's Best Workplaces in Chicago. Earning a spot means that ASCM has surpassed rigorous benchmarks, establishing itself as one of the best workplaces among companies headquartered in Chicago.

To determine the Fortune Best Workplaces in Chicago™ List, Great Place To Work collected nearly 62,000 confidential responses from employees at eligible companies via its proprietary platform. Companies were ranked based on their ability to offer consistently positive experiences, building trust with leaders, colleagues, and the overall organization.

"Our consistent designation as a Great Place to Work® over the last nine years and now Fortune Magazine's Best Places to Work in Chicago is a powerful testament to our team," said ASCM CEO Abe Eshkenazi, CSCP, CPA, CAE. "It's the people at ASCM and our members that make it a truly exceptional place to work every day. We're incredibly proud and thankful to earn this honor."

The Best Workplaces in Chicago list is highly competitive. Survey responses reflect a comprehensive picture of the workplace experience. Honorees were rewarded based on their ability to deliver positive outcomes for employees regardless of role or status within the organization.

To be eligible for the list, companies must be Great Place To Work Certified™, have at least 10 U.S. employees, and be headquartered in the Chicago region.

"Congratulations to the Fortune Best Workplaces in Chicago," says Michael C. Bush, CEO at Great Place To Work. "These companies prove that prioritizing people leads to better performance, and that leaders who invest in their people are rewarded with more sustainable and profitable businesses."
